of Plans.Appointments Are Made and Others Which Will Be Announced Soon.

Active work upon the various measures which must come before the legislature to carry out the pledges of the Republican party will begin tonight, when it is expected the first joint meetings of the central committee and members of the legislature will be held. It will be the regular meeting of the Territorial Committee of the party, and there are a large number of members in the city.

There will be practically a full attendance of the Republican majority before the session opens, and it is not believed that there will be more than two members who will be absent from the preliminary caucuses. Messrs.

Cools the Blood

Hot weather takes the life out of everybody. You become languid, debilitated, nervous, depressed. You lose your appetite and you have indigestion. Your blood becomes impure, your head aches, your nerves are weak, and you are tired all the time. You want something to purify your blood and make it cool and healthy.

Mr. Giovanni D'Nesi, of Parkside, South Australia, tells you how this may be done. He sends his photograph also.

Greenwell and Wright of Kona will be detained by business until the very week of the opening of the legislature, but they are the only members who have not signified their intention to be present.

There has been some consideration of the county bill in meetings of the members of the committee locally, but there has developed little determination to amend the measure. It will be received by the full committee and considered in detail the first time there is a meeting at which there will be a large number of legislators, and then the amending of the measure is expected to develop fully. At the present time the principal discussion is over the judiciary, education and taxation clauses of the bill. There is a wave of feeling growing against the continuation of the income tax, as under the county bill and that measure the tax on business men would be three fold, there being the % tax on business done, the 2 per cent income, and finally the one per cent tax on property. There is some feeling that with the income tax wiped out, and a stated license fee upon retail business, there would be sufficient revenue without a burden being laid upon the merchants.

There is some feeling, too, against the plan for a Territorial Board of Equalization, as there are the men of the outside counties who feel that they will be able to conduct their business upon a cheaper scale and thus make their tax levy lower than in the larger counties, where there are heavy drains on the public funds.

There promises to develop something of a struggle over legislative appointments. Candidates for various places will be on hand from each of the Islands. The belief is that neither house will have its debates reported in full.
There promises to be plenty of talking, and certain leaders agree that it would mean a great deal more time if the Home Rulers knew that they could have their speeches printed in the record.

The Republican Central Committee has approved the application of David Kaahanaui for superintendent of the Kalihi Detention Camp. He is a poola and had the entire support of the men of his business. Among other appointments decided on are those of Archie Mahaula for assistant assessor, district of Waialua and Koolauloa; Chris Holt, assessor, Waianae; and Joseph Kana-wa, assistant assessor, Ewa district.

Kau, Hawaii, on January 24. The meeting was held in the evening and was largely attended. A club was formed and a resolution condemning the lazaretto scheme was presented and adopted

HAOLES CAUGHT
PLAYING DICE

Seven or eight haoles and natives playing dice near one of the Wilder wharves were surprised yesterday at 1 o'clock by officer Duncan who appeared in time to secure several of the players. The evidence was a leather dice box, five dice and about $2 in silver. All were taken to the police station and, charged with gambling.
High Sheriff Brown had noticed the playing shortly before and warned the men not to keep up the game, but as soon as the High Sheriff was out of sight his advice was disregarded. A young white man is said to have acted as banker and welder of the box.

WAS AFTER AGUINALDOA Navy Man Meets
With Army
Friend.

Commander E. B. Barry, U. S. N., one of the men instrumental in the capture of Aguinaldo in March, 1900, was a through passenger in the China yesterday. Commander Barry was in command of the United States gun-boat Vicksburg when Brigadier general Funston, Captain Hazzard, Captain Harry Newton, now of Camp McKinley, Honolulu, Lieutenant Hazzard, and Lieutenant Mitchell of the volunteer army service, together with 80 Maca-bebes and five Tagalogs, were quietly taken on the vessel from Manila and landed at Casiguran, on the eastern coast of Luzon. Commander Barry and Captain Newton, or First Lieutenant Newton, as he ranks now in the regular service, met by accident at the Hawallan Hotel yesterday afternoon and talked over the exciting experiences of the twelve days in which the little party sought the Filipino chieftain.

The Vicksburg dropped the party commanded by General Funston at Casiguran. The American officers were clothed as privates of the American army and being conducted as alleged prisoners by the Macabebes to Aguinaldo's camp. When close to the latter's headquarters, Sagavia, who commanded the natives, Cecilio, the guide, and a few others of the natives went forward to apprise the Filipino leader of the approach of the party with its prisoners. The Americans were brought into camp, and at a signal from General Funston Aguinaldo and several of the leaders of the insurrectionist government were seized.

Then came the hazardous march back to the coast. The party arrived safely, although harassed along the way, at Palanan Bay in Isabella province, where the Vicksburg had gone by previous arrangement to meet General Funston on his return from the interior. Commander Barry assisted the army officers in every way from the time the expedition left Manila until he had brought them back again with their famous prisoners, and it was largely due to his efforts that the expedition proved so successful.

Lieutenant Newton was rewarded for his gallantry on this expedition by a promotion from the volunteer service to a lieutenant in the regular army.
He was assigned to the artillery arm, and soon after sent to Honolulu.

were then passed to the legislative committee of the Exchange to be put in proper shape for presentation to the executive committee of the Republican Central committee. The members present were J. F. Bowler, Stanley Stephenson, G. F. Bush, L. E. Pinkham, James Nott, Jr. A. F. Clark, with President Gartley and Vice President Craig in attendance. Among others
